

Scheme of Work 2014 Subject: ENGLISH YEAR: 11

Teacher: LAURA Week Commencing: Monday 15th September 2014

Class	Title of Class	Topic & Learning Activities	How will learning be checked?	Resources
1	GCSE English Language Paper	Go through the English Language paper completed in the last two lessons and for homework. Read thoroughly through the comprehension texts and revise the technique required for each question. Practice use of synonyms and alternative phrasing, to put the answer in the candidates own words.	Through addressing difficulties voiced by the students ...	GCSE practice paper questions 1-4 from CGP booklet, complete with comprehension texts.
2	GCSE English Language Paper	As above.	... and apparent in their written responses.	As above.
3	GCSE English Language Paper	As above.	As above.	As above.
4	GCSE English Language Paper	As above, focusing on the writing questions. Recap use of strong indicative markers, anecdotes, facts, statistics and counterarguments.	As above.	Writing questions 5-6, written by the teacher.
5	GCSE English Language Paper	As above.	As above.	As above.
6	Recap of 'An Inspector Calls.'	Recap the play's themes, and set and discuss this week's homework: 'Reread Act 1 of 'An Inspector Calls.' How does Priestley show contrast between Inspector Goole and Mr Birling? Use quotations, and aim for a minimum of two pages.'	Written work – an essay to be marked.	'An Inspector Calls' by J B Priestley, plus a practice question set by the teacher.